

Nevada Historical Society

Haunted Nevada 2013

Saturday, October 19, 2013 Time: 11am to 5pm

A Day of Ghoulish Lectures & One Really Bad Movie

Lecture 11:00-12:00pm

Stones and Bones—Reno Cemetery Lecture—Arline Laferry
History of Reno-Sparks cemeteries being moved to different locations.

Lecture 12:00-1:00pm

Reliving History thru the Spirits and their Stories
Sandie La Nae and Kim Copel, Thin Veil Investigators, Genoa Ghost Tours

Lecture 1:00-2:00pm

Hooks, Secret Tunnels, Floating Skulls—What Madness!
Myths and beliefs surrounding the Nevada Insane Asylum
Kim Henrick and Rosie Cevasco

‘Mini Readings’ 12:30-3:30pm

While you are eating your Zombie dessert, get a mini reading with Angel or Tarot Cards from card reader, Betty Franklin.

Zombie-I-Scream Social 12:30-3:30pm

Enjoy the creepier side of dessert, Zombie toppings to tempt your inner ghoul.

Zomboo Meet & Greet 1:00-2:30pm

During the Zombie-I-Scream Social, visit with our favorite ghoul, Zomboo. Don't forget to bring your camera for a Zomboo Photo Op in time for Halloween.

Movie – 2:30-3:30pm War of the Colossal Beast

Zomboo will entertain you with one-liners during this really bad Nevada-themed movie. Premise: A series of food truck robberies makes government officials think the Colossal Man is not dead. He is discovered in Mexico, insane and horribly disfigured. The military transports him back to America where he escapes and wreaks havoc on Las Vegas.

Lecture 3:45-5:00pm

Ghost Hunting Tips & Treats—Paul Lindemuth, NV Paranormal Institute
A fascinating lecture on what it takes to detect spirits with today's equipment used on investigations, giving basic tips on ghost hunting and learn what the group 'discovered' at the Society.

Get in the mood with our mini-card readings, creepy artifact display, ghoulish treats and our hair-raising movie!

Nevada's Oldest Cultural Institution

1650 North Virginia Street Reno, NV 89503 775-688-1190 ext. 0